St. Gaspar and the Song of Songs: A Retreat on Community and Communion

Directed by Fr. Alan Hartway C.P.P.S

Conversations about love are the most important ones we have as humans. In an increasingly hostile and unloving world, we need opportunities to refresh ourselves with fine wine.

St. Gaspar, the founder of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood, reflected on the Song of Songs in a series of letters he shared among the members of his fledgling society. Exploring those reflections, we will unfold a spirituality of authentic community and the centrality of Eucharist as lived in the Sacraments of Service.

The Song is a spiritual treasure of the Bible, appealing to lovers of all kinds. The retreat welcomes all interested in the great conversation about love.

Fr. Alan Hartway, C.P.P.S.

Fr. Hartway has been a Missionary of the Precious Blood since 1974 and pastor of Guardian Angels, Mead, Colorado, since 2007.
