Haunted by God: The Life of Dorothy Day

Haunted by God is an acclaimed play about Dorothy Day (1897-1980) who, as the co-founder of the Catholic Worker movement, spent 47 years caring for the poor and leading the Catholic Church to a more active participation in social justice. The church began a canonical investigation into Day's cause for canonization in 2016.

When Pope Francis made his historic address to Congress in 2015, he called Day one of four "great Americans," along with Abraham Lincoln, Martin Luther King Jr. and Thomas Merton, the Catholic monk.
